Dear Jenny Rathbone MS

Stage 1 consultation: Social Partnerships and Public Procurement (Wales) Bill

The current proposals will enable universities to be represented on the Social Partnership Council and to continue to make a significant contribution to the social responsibility and partnership agenda, building on their work with the Workforce Partnership Council, implementation of the Code of Practice on Ethical Employment in Supply Chains and the Real Living Wage.

At the same time, the changes since the Draft Bill address the significant issues for universities identified in our response to the Draft Bill, including in relation to charity law.

Yours sincerely,

Amanda Wilkinson
Director, Universities Wales
