Annwyl Elinor,

Awgrymu ymchwiliad gan y Pwyllgor i'r cysylltiad rhwng tlodi a chysylltiad â gofal cymdeithasol

Diolch am eich llythyr at y Pwyllgor Cydraddoldeb a Chyflawnder Cymdeithasol ynghylch ymchwiliad posibl i'r berthynas rhwng tlodi a chysylltiad plant â gofal cymdeithasol yng Nghymru. Cafodd ei nodi yn ein cyfarfod ar 27 Mawrth 2023. Diolch i chi am dynnu sylw at y gwaith ymchwil gan Paul Bywaters a chydweithwyr ynglŷn â'r angen i ofal cymdeithasol fynd i'r afael â'r trallod economaidd sylfaenol a achosir gan yr argyfwng costau byw, yn erbyn cefndir o gyni cylindol a'r cyfnod wedi'r y pandemig, sy'n cynyddu cyfraddau atgyfeirio at wasanaethau cymdeithasol oherwydd esgeuluso a cham-drin plant.

Mae pwylgorau'r Senedd fel arfer yn trefnu eu gwaith fis oedd lawer ymlaen llaw. Ar hyn o bryd, nid oes gennym gynlluniau penodol ar gyfer gwaith ynghylch tlodi plant, ond dyma yw un o'r meysydd blaenoriaeth posibl y byddwn yn eu trafod fel rhan o'n gwaith yn y dyfodol.

Mae diweddariadau ar ein blaenraglen waith ar gael ar ein gwefan, ac os bydd amserlen y Pwyllgor yn y dyfodol yn caniatâu ymchwiliad penodol i'r pwnc pwysig hwn neu bwnc tebyg, byddwn yn ysgrifennu atoch i'ch gwahodd i gyflwyno dystiolaeth. O ystyried ei berthnasedd i'w cylchoedd gwaith, rydym hefyd wedi rhannu eich llythyr gyda'r Pwyllgor Plant, Pobl Ifanc ac Addysg a'r Pwyllgor lechyd a Gofal Cymdeithasol er gwybodaeth. Rwy'n siŵr y byddant yn eich hysbysu yn yr un modd am unrhyw waith perthnasol y gallent fod yn ei wneud.

Yn gywir,

Jenny Rathbone AS

We welcome correspondence in Welsh or English.

Dear Committee Chair,

I am writing to you to propose that the Equality and Social Justice Committee carry out an inquiry into the relationship between poverty and children's social care involvement in Wales. Research has shown that poverty and inequality affect how the child protection system responds to families who are struggling; An inquiry should:

- Look at the levers Welsh Government has to poverty proof the child protection system.
- Consider to what extent families who experience poverty are supported.
- Consider how the system can recognise when it is the context of poverty itself which is causing harm to the family, rather than intentional neglect.
- Consider the role of the forthcoming child poverty strategy in poverty proofing the child protection system.
- Look at cross-departmental policies, training, regulation and data collection and how they can be truly anti-poverty.

While we welcome the work Welsh Government has undertaken so far to tackle child poverty, NSPCC Cymru is concerned about the increased risk to children as families come under increasing pressure from the cost-of-living crisis. This is against a backdrop of austerity and the pandemic.

Recent research from Paul Bywaters<sup>1</sup> and colleagues highlights a 'contributory causal relationship between the economic circumstances of families and child abuse and neglect'. The authors of the research suggest we should not view poverty necessarily as another factor of abuse, but something that is 'intrinsic to' other factors such as domestic abuse and substance misuse. Poverty has been described as 'the wallpaper of the social care system', in that it is too big to tackle and too familiar to notice. Paul Bywater says supporting families to exit poverty must be core business for children's social care.

NSPCC considers poverty to be a preventable, structural harm which negatively impacts children and can put them at increased risk. A lack of resources can prevent families from being able to provide adequately for their children, and the stress of financial insecurity can overload families, affecting relationships. Living in poverty means parents are not having their needs met, in turn, this can impact their capacity to care for their child.

Within this context, NSPCC Cymru is urging the Committee to undertake an inquiry into the relationship between poverty and children's social care involvement. In these times of financial hardship, creating a social safety net around our most vulnerable families has never been more important.

Yours faithfully,

Elinor Puzey,
Senior Policy and Public Affairs Officer, NSPCC Cymru
