Bil Cyllid Llywodraeth Leol (Cymru)
Local Government Finance (Wales) Bill
Ymateb gan: Unigolion
Response from: Individual

Dear Members,

A number of my friends and family rely on local newspapers for their news, reports, notices and information about daily life.

If a bill is introduced to allow Local Authorities to act without fully consulting or publishing in every form accessible to all then that will mean a large section of the community will be totally unaware of changes, costs, charges, information and policy amendments.

This is a backward step, and I'm sure savings could be found elsewhere which don't impact on individuals who rely on these publications for all their news, updates, notices and important information.

I am writing this on behalf of those of my friends who are reluctant to put pen to paper and unless they read it in their local papers are ignorant of changes which affect them.
