Re: Draft Wales Bill – invitation to give oral evidence to the Constitutional and Legislative Affairs Committee

I am writing in response to your letter dated 7th October inviting me to give oral evidence to the National Assembly for Wales' Constitutional and Legislative Affairs Committee, as part of your inquiry into the draft Wales Bill.

Regrettably the letter never arrived in my office. I offer my sincere apologies that you did not receive a reply.

I would of course have been keen to give evidence, and I would be very happy to do so in the future if you so wished.

I read the Committee's report of the inquiry with interest. The Government is listening to views on the draft Wales Bill and we welcome the Committee's contribution to the debate.

Yours sincerely,

Philip Rycroft
