Thank you for your email request.

As mentioned, whereas UCU Wales has no direct evidence of a differential Covid gender-impact in higher education within in Wales, there is evidence across the UK and elsewhere (including the Lancet article which I cited whilst offering evidence);

For further commentary on the pandemic and gender inequality, I would recommend the following;

With respect to recruitment figures, I will seek to offer you a view on Tuesday/Wednesday when staff return from leave.

I hope that you find this helpful and please do not hesitate to contact me should you require any further information.

Yours Sincerely,

Jamie Insole – Wales Policy Officer
